Wynkyn de Worde Society Christmas Party

Raise a toast to Scotland's patron saint, St Andrew, before moving on to an early celebration of Christmas. This will take place at one of London's unexpected delights, the Cello Factory near Waterloo Station. The Art Nouveau space is the venue for all kinds of art exhibitions, and it is said that the first Daleks were made here, so who knows what you might encounter.

Please reserve _____ place(s) at £30 each
